Cascade AIDS Project Welcomes Tracy Curtis to Board of Directors

PORTLAND, OR (March 13th, 2018): Cascade AIDS Project (“CAP”) is proud to introduce its newest board member, Ms. Tracy Curtis. CAP welcomed Ms. Curtis in December 2017.

Ms. Curtis is a Regional Bank President for Wells Fargo & Company. As an Executive Vice President, she is responsible for managing the customer service, sales and community involvement activities of nearly 800 team members at 74 bank branches in northern Oregon and Southwest Washington. A native of England, she began her Wells Fargo career in 1988 as a teller.

Tyler Termeer, CAP Executive Director, says, “We are thrilled to have Tracy’s intelligence, grace, and business acumen on the CAP board. She is a great addition at a time when the organization is growing bigger and bigger.”

Ms. Curtis states, “I am honored and proud to be part of Cascade AIDS Project, especially as the organization is growing and trying new things!”

Tracy also heads the Board of the Trail Blazers Foundation, and volunteers on the Boards of Raphael House, Oregon Bankers Association, and The Mighty Endeavor.
